TRUTH IN SCRIPTURE

Samson and Delilah
Judges 16

Samson fell in love with a woman named Delilah. The Philistines convinced Delilah to lure Samson into giving her the secret to his great strength so that they could subdue him.

First Samson told Delilah that if he was tied down with seven bowstrings that he would become as weak as any other man.

She tried that, but he broke the bowstrings.

Next Samson told Delilah that if he was tied with new rope he would become weak. That too was a lie.

Samson then told Delilah that if she would weave the seven braids of his head into the fabric on the loom that he would become weak.

That also was a lie.

Delilah persisted in finding out the secret to Samson's strength.

Finally he told her that his hair had never been cut because he was a Nazirite set apart by God since birth. If his hair was cut, he would lose his strength.

While Samson slept, a Philistine came and shaved his head and he was weak. Samson was subdued and his eyes were gouged out.
